

The Austrian gas market: evolution, trends, outlook

Tuesday, 14 March 2017

Fleming's Hotel Wien-Westbahnhof, Neubaugürtel 26-28, 1070 Vienna

PROGRAM

10:00	Registration (breakfast)
10:30	Opening Martin Szelgrad, Moderator, Editor-In-Chief, Energie Report
10:35	Austria's gas grid as European hub – the challenges Andreas Eigenbauer, Executive Director, E-Control
10:50	Does Austria's gas market actually work? Insights from a wholesale market evaluation Markus Krug, Gas Expert, E-Control
11:20	Perspectives for the wholesale gas market from the study Oliver Elbling, study author and CEO, WECOM
12:00	Discussion with audience Bernhard Painz, Head of Gas Department, E-Control; Oliver Elbling, study author and CEO, WECOM; Joachim Rahls, Chair, German Task Force Gas, European Federation of Energy Traders; Gottfried Steiner, CEO, Central European Gas Hub AG; Nicola Battilana, Managing Director, Trans Austria Gasleitung GmbH; Dirk Buschle, Deputy Director, Energy Community Secretariat
13:00	Lunch
14:00	The revision of the third energy package and the quo vadis study. An update Zsuzsanna Szeles, Directorate-General for Energy, European Commission
14:15	Demand-side management. Offering and handling large customer load reductions Ronald Farmer, Gas Expert, E-Control; Philip Rodemeyer, Clearing &amp; Risk Management, AGCS; Wolfgang Weilguny, Head of Dispatching, AGGM
15:00	Renovating the Auersthal-Laa/Thaya line Gernot Haider, Head of Department, Gas Flow Management &amp; Optimisation, AGGM
15:30	Data for energy crisis prevention. What changes does the amended ordinance bring? Christian Ritter, Head of Data Management, AGGM
16:00	The evolution of the gas market and trends for the future Bernhard Painz, Head of Gas Department, E-Control
ca. 16:15	End